

HIGH HOLY DAY INFORMATION

This packet contains dining information for the upcoming High Holy Days including the timeline, menus, and order forms. Please refer to the general information outlined on this cover page to help guide you through the process. You may reach out directly to

Chelsea Cromwell at x4-9118 chelseacromwell@hsl.harvard.edu or Joshua Ferraro at x4-9121 joshua ferraro@hsl.harvard.edu for additional support.

- Reservations for the first two nights of Rosh Hashanah in Great Meadow Hall are open beginning Friday, August 29th
- You must reserve your seats and select your meals using the electronic order form on the dining website events page nbocdine.org/upcoming-events/ by Friday September 12th. (Reserve for your household and family members only)
- Family members are welcome to join residents for all dining events for Rosh Hashanah, Erev Yom Kippur and Yom Kippur Break-the-Fast
- There is a 10 seat maximum per household for dinners in GMH and a 8 seat maximum per household for dinners in Centro
- For pre-order events, nonrefundable charges will be processed 48 hours prior
- There is no pre-order required for High Holy Day dinners in Centro, but reservations are required and can be made 1 week in advance as is the normal reservation process.
- Takeout orders will be available day of for up to 6 meals if ordered by 2pm
- Larger orders for takeout meals of more than 6, contact newbridgecatering@hsl.harvard.edu (minimum 2 weeks' notice for bulk orders)